

Centre of Excellence in Additive Manufacturing in association with KCTU

Year of Establishment : 2018

Objectives

1. To ensure the adoption of Reverse engineering and Additive manufacturing techniques in the Engineering
2. To develop an effective Training system for the benefit of students and industry personnel
3. To take up consultancies, projects from industry and academia
4. To take up Research and development work in the area of Additive Manufacturing