Entrepreneurship Development Cell

Introduction:

Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) at KLS Gogte Institute of Technology (KLSGIT), Belagavi, aims to develop and strengthen the innovation and entrepreneurship (I&E) ecosystem at the campus. It shall work towards inculcation the spirit of entrepreneurship among budding professionals who are interested in starting their own ventures. The primary objective of the EDC is to assist in the establishment of an atmosphere that supports and nurtures an entrepreneurial culture in the college. It includes guidance, skill development, support, and encouragement to aspiring student entrepreneurs.

In addition to resources and networking opportunities, the EDC aims to support students with mentorship and training. ED cell focuses to motivate, support and mentor the students for identification, development and commercialization of their innovation ideas.

Objectives of EDC:

- To orient on the need and importance of entrepreneurial spirit among the students in the campus
- To inspire and urge students to pursue entrepreneurship as a career by fostering a culture of entrepreneurship among them
- To enhance the understanding of the requirements, opportunities, and constraints involved in launching a start-up
- To create a network of experts, professionals, and alumni who can help students as they embark on their entrepreneurial journeys.
- To train students and impart the necessary knowledge and skills through a variety of activities.

Activities of EDC:

- Organizing a range of awareness programs, including workshops, industrial visits, seminars, and interactions with young entrepreneurs. The goal of these initiatives is to increase student enthusiasm for entrepreneurship.
- Setting up mentorship programs to help students connect with experienced entrepreneurs who can offer support and guidance
- Arranging activities to provide students a platform to present their ideas, like start-up fairs and pitch contests
- Organize entrepreneurship awareness camps, entrepreneurship development programs, skill development programs
- Arrange guest lectures by successful entrepreneurs and provide a platform for interaction between professional entrepreneurs and student entrepreneurs.
- To organize events that helps to infuse the entrepreneurial spirit among the students
- To increase awareness among students about schemes and policies existing to start new ventures.
- To engage students in Think, Design, Build and Test their Projects; and convert them to products.

EDC functioning with IIC and R&D Cell:

The ED Cell is a very crucial wing of the college's effort to develop a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship among students. It provides the necessary skills, resources, and support to students to face challenges in venturing into the business world and achieve their entrepreneurial goals. EDC identifies the activities and events to be conducted as per the IIC calendar and works along with R&D office and IIC towards the conduct of the I&E related activities - from the proposal stage to the execution stage.
